Bond Investment Circulars Sent to Sedalia from the City of Mexico.

E. E. SATTLEY IN CUSTODY.

Unable to Give Bond Last Night—
Judge Phillips Orders A. B.
Crawford's Release.

The receipt of a number of circulars from the City of Mexico yesterday leads to the belief that possibly J. C. Thompson, the fugitive cashier of the First National bank, intends to locate there permanently and become associated with his attorney, R. E. Kuchner, in conducting a bond investment company.

Among those who were "favored" with a circular was L. C. Snell, the Ohio street tonsorial artist, who says he knows no one in the City of Mexico except Mr. Thompson, and for this reason he (Snell) thinks he is indebted to the late Sedalia banker for the "remembrance."

The circular is from "The Mutual Guarantee Company of Mexico," and Mr. Kuchner, the attorney for Mr. Thompson, figures as vice president of the concern. The printed matter was enclosed in an envelope to which a five cent stamp had been attached, and on the left hand corner was a printed card, in red ink, viz: "Return in 10 days to P. O. Box 205, City of Mexico."

For the benefit of those who care to invest, the following explanation of the "snap" is reproduced from the printed "information" forwarded to Mr. Snell:

I take pleasure in handing you herewith prospectus containing the plan of The Mutual Guarantee company of this city. You are doubtless aware of the difficulties and complications under which the various bond companies, recently doing business in the United States, have labored by reason of the decision of the postal authorities, excluding said companies from the use of the United States mails, and litigation consequent thereto. In view of these facts, The Mutual Guarantee company of this city has been organized by men of the highest reputation and financial standing in this republic, and we are thoroughly protected by a special charter from the Mexican government for the term of eighty years, and we are assured by the federal government that the business of the company will never be interfered with in any manner, shape or form during its corporate existence. Mr. Fernando Vega, of this city, has been appointed commissioner by the federal government to represent its interest in this company.

Realizing the fact that you are in a position to render us valuable aid by your patronage, should you wish to exchange the bonds now held by you for contracts in this company, we will issue our contracts in exchange for the bonds held by you, the contracts so issued to be numbered so as to give them as near as possible the same relative position as to priority as the bonds held in any of the various bond companies that issued them. We do not require you to send the bonds, only the number thereof, which must be in our hands by July 20th, accompanied by $2 for each application for contract, to cover the payment for July. Your payments being made in United States money, as a matter of course.

Sattley in Custody.

Elmer C. Sattley, cashier of the Kansas City Safe Deposit and Savings bank, was arrested yesterday by Deputy Marshal J. B. Keshlear, says this morning's Journal, on four charges of receiving deposits in an insolvent institution. He failed to give bond for his appearance before Justice Brown and spent last night at his home, 304 Maple avenue, in the custody of Deputy Marshal F. C. Stewart.

Mr. Sattley was arrested in the office of his attorney, John O'Grady, in the New York Life building, on four warrants sworn out by Prosecuting Attorney Brown, charging him with receiving the following sums of money on deposit after the bank of which he was cashier was in an insolvent condition. Norman H. Chamberlain, $1,025; John C. Vost, $99.50; Harriet C. Moore, $400, and J. W. Kirk, $185.

Sattley was taken before Justice Latshaw, but took a change of venue, the case going to Justice Browne, before whom he will be arraigned this morning. Bond was not fixed, but the prosecuting attorney will ask that it be placed at $20,000, $5,000 in each of the four cases.

Mr. Sattley spent several hours during the afternoon in endeavoring to arrange bond, but had not done so at 6 o'clock. He put in several hours during the evening, but failed also, and spent the night at his home, 304 Maple avenue, in custody of Deputy Marshal F. C. Stewart. Prosecuting Attorney Brown said last night, regarding the new charges:

"Cyrus Newkirk, of Sedalia, Sattley's father-in-law, who is on his bond in the pending cases, is heavily involved in the failure of his bank at Sedalia and has assigned all he has in the world. His bond is therefore worthless. Several other things have happened that made me uneasy, and I don't propose that he shall get away from me. The best thing to be done, in my opinion, was to have him arrested on new charges and make him give a good bond to answer to the new charges."

"I don't think anybody can call this persecution, for these defendants have certainly been treated very leniently and have no just cause for complaint. They have taken advantage of every delay authorized by the law and only the other day took snap judgment on me by sending representatives to New York to take material depositions, notifying me several days after their men had gone. Fortunately the telegraph enabled me to block their game and I will have an agent on hand to represent me in the matter."

Crawford Will Be Released.

Judge Phillips yesterday morning received a new bond from Springfield, Mo., for A. B. Crawford, the defaulting cashier of the Springfield National bank, who is in custody in the city hospital in that city undergoing treatment for the wound which he inflicted upon himself with suicidal intent a week ago. The bond was in the sum of $15,000, and was signed by three citizens who own sufficient unincumbered real estate to make it good. Judge Phillips approved the bond and instructed Marshal Shelby to send word to his deputy at Springfield to release Crawford.

Attempted Suicide.

Chas. McConnell, a business man of Sweet Springs, who has been quite ill, made an attempt at suicide at 6 o'clock this morning by cutting his throat. An ugly wound was inflicted; but it is not considered dangerous.

Crimination and Recrimination in the Churchill Case.

Miss May Music, aged 14 years, called at the DEMOCRAT office this morning, in company with her adopted mother and sister, Mrs. Bradford, and reiterated the statement previously made to her relatives, to the effect that Jim Churchill took her out riding Tuesday night, and while on the trip, after having left the buggy, he insulted her grossly by making an indecent proposal to her. She denied having been mistreated by her step-sister, Mrs. Bradford, as Mr. Churchill claimed to be the case yesterday.

This afternoon Mrs. Churchill and Mrs. W. B. Smith called and both stated that Miss May had informed them that Mr. Churchill had never mistreated her, while her sister, Mrs. Bradford, had beaten her, and in corroboration of her statement she exhibited a number of bruises.

Both sides of the case have now been presented and the DEMOCRAT herewith drops it.

WOODMEN ROLL LOGS.

Fifty Camps from Southern-Western Missouri Unite.

Fifty camps of Modern Woodmen from Southern and Western Missouri are holding an annual "log rolling" or picnic, at Troost park, in Kansas City, today. Hundreds of visitors from out of town are present.

The "log rolling" began with a street parade at 10 o'clock. It was headed by the Second Infantry band, and was under the direction of Chief Marshal D. I. Gessley. The Woodman goat and candidate were exhibited on a float, and other emblematical scenes were in line.

An address of welcome was delivered by Mayor Davis at the park. Addresses were also delivered by George L. Walls, venerable consul; William A. Northcott, of Greenville, Ill., head consul; Dr. Frank Swallow, head physician; D. C. Zink, head banker; D. L. Thornton, state deputy, and J. G. Johnson, chairman of the board of directors. A good programme of field sports was arranged, and the Woodmen expect to have a merry day.

THE ROMANCE LOST.

Rough Experience of a Girl
From Fayette.

HER AFFIANCED ROBS HER

Miss Lela Rose, a Pretty Young Woman, Deserted by Her Affianced Husband.

A pretty young woman, who gave her name as Lela Rose, walked into the charity organization at Louisville, Ky., Wednesday afternoon and said she wanted a pass back to her home at Fayette, Mo.

She said she had been robbed of her gold watch and $7 in money by Joe Lawrence, her intended husband. On being questioned by Mrs. Deering she told a romantic story.

She said her home was at Fayette, Mo., but she could not get along with her step-mother. Rather than see her leave home and go to work her aunt, who lives in England, had taken charge of her and sent her to college in Brookfield, Mo., where she was to prepare herself to become a writer.

She had attended school there two years and determined to go to Cincinnati to visit a friend of the family, Mrs. Louise Harris. She left Brookfield alone two days ago, and, on her way between Independence and Kansas City, she met a photographer who said his name was Joe Lawrence.

He was handsome and seemed to be a nice fellow, so she began to like him at once. She had known him only a few hours when he proposed that instead of going to Cincinnati, she get off the train with him at Louisville and get married to him. She thought this would be a jolly thing to do, so she immediately consented.

While they were sitting in the train together she says Lawrence playfully took her gold watch off and put it in his own pocket. She did not object to this and said nothing to him about it. Just before they reached Louisville she says she gave him all the money she had, thinking it would be safe in his keeping.

When they alighted from the train Tuesday night, Lawrence, who seemed to be familiar with the city, took her to the Arlington hotel. He registered her name as Lela Rose and then registered his own as Albert Larson. When she asked him why he did that he told her it was done thoughtlessly. After both had registered they prepared for supper and ate the meal together. Lawrence or Larson excused himself shortly after supper, saying he wanted to go around the corner to see an old acquaintance. He left and since then has not been seen.

She went to see Chief of Police Taylor and he sent for Dr. Hawes, who took her to the charity organization. The girl talks intelligently and says she does not care to go on her visit to Cincinnati, but would prefer going home. She said her father knew nothing of her escape.

LIKE A ROMANCE.

The Divorced Wife of a Newspaper Man to Wed.

WAS A KANSAS CITY GIRL.

She is to Marry C. H. Cramp, the Wealthy Ship Builder, of Philadelphia.

The announcement is made at the national capital that Miss Madeline L. Polk is engaged to be married to C. H. Cramp, of Philadelphia, who is the head of the great ship building firm.

By order of the district court Mrs. Madeline Polk-Buell is granted leave to resume her maiden name of Polk, and the announcement of the wedding has created no little attention among Missourians and friends. Miss Polk is about 25 years old, having been born in Missouri, and is the daughter of Colonel Polk, of Kansas City, who at one time was very active in local democratic politics, and in one congress was sergeant-at-arms of the house of representatives.

Soon after graduating at a St. Louis convent Miss Polk accompanied her father to Washington when he was elected an officer of the house. Here she met Augustus C. Buell, of Missouri, who at that time was corresponding for a St. Louis paper, and very soon they were married.

They continued to live at the capital, and Buell engaged in various newspaper enterprises, succeeding Don Platt as publisher of the Washington Capital. In due time he became interested in naval matters and made a specialty of naval architecture, becoming an expert on the subject.

Secretary Whitney took him up and gave him the supervision of certain work being done at the Cramp yards. Later on Cramp employed Buell to look after certain features of his work, and he became employed at the shipyards, where he still remains.

The marriage of Buell and Miss Polk did not prove a happy one and they gradually drifted apart until less than two years ago, when, by mutual consent, upon application of Mrs. Buell a divorce was granted. At that time Cramp had become acquainted with the family and in the proceedings leading to a divorce he was active in seeing that the inter-

BUSINESS men are reporting better times. Trade in all lines is improving and everything indicates a speedy recovery from the bad effects of last summer's scare.

WHEN the leading republican papers admit that the McKinley bill has ruined the presidential prospects of its author. They virtually confess that their party cannot be trusted to frame tariff laws.

THE Jefferson City Democrat advises that the honest men in the United States senate "resign and go home." By no means! Keep the rascals at home and let the honest members make the laws.

ALL the Gazette has to say about United States Attorney Walker is but cumulative evidence that the DEMOCRAT was right in urging the community to offer a reward for the arrest and conviction of Thompson.

THE secretary of an A. P. A. lodge in St. Louis says he was sandbagged and the books of the lodge stolen from him while going home the other night, and it is feared that the enemies of the order will get hold of the records.

It is perfectly natural that New York City should oppose an income tax. There is a great deal of wealth that escapes taxation in that city, and the proposed measure would shift a part of the burden of government from labor to capital.

"RUMORS of war" continue to come from Pennsylvania where the miners' strike is not yet settled. A dispatch says 2,000 armed strikers are in possession of the town of Walston and propose to resist all efforts to drive them out. They are mostly Hungarians and Italians and those miners who will not promise to fight are held as prisoners.

AT last J. C. Thompson, the absconding cashier of the First National bank of Sedalia, has been located, and the indications are that is just what some people in Sedalia didn't want.—Tipton Times.

BUT that's just what the great majority of Sedalia people do want. They want the whole management of the defunct bank laid bare to the light and every criminal act investigated and all the facts made known.

DOES the DEMOCRAT desire to offer its Thompson reward under the United States treaty with Mexico, or under the statutes of Missouri.—Gazette.

EITHER. The DEMOCRAT wants to see him brought back and tried for each and all the crimes he has committed and punished for every one of them. And now, will the Gazette please tell the public whether it wants Thompson extradited and brought to trial at all or not? And if it does want him punished why discourage offering a reward for his arrest and conviction?

THERE is no straddling in the new California republican platform, says the Post-Dispatch. The plank is of solid silver from end to end. "We favor free and unlimited coinage of silver at a ratio of 16 to 1, and the making of silver as well as gold legal tender in payment of all debts, both public and private, and we pledge our congressional nominees to support the principles contained in this resolution." The republicans of Missouri may learn from the silver plank of their California brethren the forceful style which goes with an "invincible tread."

EVERYBODY is abundantly and cheerfully satisfied with that delegate convention except the editor of the DEMOCRAT.—Gazette.

THE startling ignorance of facts or the brazen recklessness of assertion which characterizes the above paragraph would be out of place anywhere else except in the editorial columns of the Gazette. It is an open secret that dissatisfaction with the convention methods was widespread among republicans. Republicans know this, and many of them have expressed publicly and privately their supreme disgust with the whole proceeding and have earnestly desired to see a new deal ordered. But these men are real republicans, and they are alarmed at what threatens to disorganize their party, because they were republicans last year and expect to be republicans again next year.

STONE'S BRAVE WORDS.
In the course of a lengthy and forcible letter to the free silver democrats of Nebraska, Governor Wm. J. Stone says:

"But, whatever they do, we must remain steadfast and true, and in our hands uphold the old banner which Jefferson threw to the breeze and Jackson bore to victory. We may feel chagrined and disheartened, but it is in the hour of danger that the loyal friends of liberty and good government should be bravest and democrats should be most firm. Only cowards desert when the storm rages. Let the people take control of our party organization and put aside those who have been unfaithful; be wiser in the future than in the past and see to it that only those whom we can trust are put on guard. Let us be bold and frank in the declarations of our principles, and trust no living man to execute them who has not proved his faith by his words."

This is advice that should be remembered and followed by the advocates of silver coinage.

Platforms are only strong when emphasized by the nomination of men who believe in the principles enunciated.

Free silver democrats must nominate free silver candidates, and stop the practice of permitting a minority sentiment to dictate nominations.

The majority of American citizens, democrats and republicans, disapprove of the course of national legislation which has stricken silver down and enhanced the value of the gold dollar.

And yet the very men who have helped to perfect such legislation have been nominated and elected by free silver votes.

There must be an end of this. The majority sentiment must name the officers as well as mould the platform.

CAN'T COMBINE.

Republicans and "Pops" Fail to Agree Upon a Candidate.

Every endeavor to form a combination against Hon. John T. Heard in this district falls to the ground of its own weight. The populists refuse to endorse Judge Shirk, Col. Tracey or any other vehement advocate of policies that directly antagonize populism, and republicans show their teeth at a suggestion that they shall surrender the nomination to the third party. In the meantime it is admitted on every hand that Mr. Heard has been a faithful and capable representative of this district, and there will be a general concurrence in the fitness of his re-election.—Springfield Democrat.

The Luck of Sports.

Speaking of the luck of the sports who have been fishing and hunting on the Osage and Gasconade, the Jefferson City Tribune observes: "These localities were once famous for game and fish, but the supply is now practically exhausted. Jefferson City parties have not caught enough fish this season to pay for the beer corks that accompanied each expedition, and when the Jefferson City sportsmen fail it is a very good sign that there is nothing worth going after."

A Sedalian's Undertaking.

W. J. Sharp, of Sedalia, is understood, will make an effort to organize a musical convention here about the first of August. We hope he may be successful.—Ashland Bugle.

ONE OF MR. RILEY'S STORIES

An Anecdote by the Hoosier Poet to Show the Power of Music.

The Hoosier poet Riley, has a new story regarding the influence of music. He said recently to a reporter in his genial manner: "Strange what an influence music has upon a man. Especially the kind that steals upon his ear in accents sweet and low. Now, there's Bill Peasley, for instance. He wasn't much of a singer, yet he caused quite a disturbance by singing an old gospel hymn. Right across from my house is a grocery store. One day last July a man placed a ladder against the grocery store and tried to put up a sign nearly twenty feet long over the window. There was an element of intense interest in this proceeding to thirty men who gathered around the ladder and watched the man as he stood upon his precarious perch. Pretty soon Bill Peasley came along. He joined the group, putting his hands behind his back in a lazy manner, and began softly whistling the 'Sweet By and By.' The air was so soft and persuasive that the man next to Bill took it up and began whistling tenor. Then another joined in and still another until the whole group were whistling. By this time the man on the ladder had become interested. He began to pucker, but no sound came from his lips. His attention was so taken up by the sign that he couldn't form his lips right. It is a difficult job to whistle and put up a sign at the same time. He had been struggling with the sign and tune for several minutes, and was standing on one foot on the ladder trying to hang one end of the sign on a nail. The situation was further complicated by his effort to come in with his bass whistle at the proper time, when his foot slipped and down he came, with the ladder and sign over him. That was the effect of one of the sweetest hymns in modern music."

FEARED HIS WIFE THE MOST.

The Juror Knew His Spouse and Therefore Disobeyed the Court.

On one occasion Judge Andrew Ellison was trying an important case at Macon City and desired to rush it through in order to make way for another case coming up next morning. The court instructed the jury and court officials to return after supper that night, as it was intended to hold a night session. At 7 o'clock all the officers, numerous witnesses and the jury, with one exception, were promptly on hand. Of course, nothing could be done without the absent jurymen. The minutes ran into hours and still the prodigal didn't return. At a late hour court adjourned without having accomplished anything. Next morning sharp at 9 o'clock the twelve jurymen were in the box. His honor scanned the crowd and asked for the truant. He was pointed out and the court ordered him to stand up.

"Mr. —," said the judge, addressing the delinquent, "didn't you understand the order of the court last night requiring the jury to be on hand after supper?"

"Yes, your honor," said the jurymen, explaining, "but you see I live quite a ways out of town and my wife gave me an order prior to the court's order, and her order was that I shouldn't stay in town over night. I considered the matter and concluded it was safer to risk your honor's displeasure than her'n, because," he added earnestly, "I know her!"

The court looked solemn a moment, as if weighing some mighty problem, then a smile started across his face, and the bar, court officers and spectators, broke out in tumultuous laughter. The jurymen was forgiven; there were many there who could, perhaps, appreciate his position.

NOT THE BEST.

The Old Man Stuck to the Colors Even in the Face of Beauty.

The adage concerning the folly of disputing about questions of personal taste is well supported by an anecdote related by Colonel T. A. Dodge. He says:

"Many years ago, in Richmond, while I was standing with a friend in his doorway, while he gave some instructions to a colored servant, there happened to pass one of the beauties of the city. We both took off our hats, courtesy in our attitudes, admiration in our hearts.

"Isn't she a beauty?" said I.
"Isn't she a beauty?" he echoed.
"Just isn't she, Uncle Ned?" he added, turning to the old servant.

"Miss Ellen's a mighty fine leddy," responded Uncle Ned in a deferential, but somewhat hesitating tone.

"Why, what do you mean, Uncle Ned?" insisted my friend, rather nettled and curious withal at the old dandy's manner.

"Well, Mars' Tom, said the ole man, 'to tell de hones' truf, we niggers doan' tink de white leddies is so handsome as de brack ones.'"

Salt in the United States.

There were 11,435,487 barrels of salt produced in the United States in the year 1893, as against 11,785,754 barrels in 1892—a falling off of 350,267 barrels. Each barrel weighed 280 pounds, making a total of 3,201,936,360 pounds. In addition to this there were importations of 391,966,537 pounds, so that this country counteracted the effects of the enormous quantities of sugar used by making way with 3,583,902,897 pounds or about 1,706,951 tons of salt.

An Effective Sermon.

Somebody complimented Sidney Smith on a charity sermon he had preached, to which the divine replied: "I believe it was effective, for old Lady Cork borrowed a sovereign of a stranger in the pew to put in the plate."

CURES OTHERS

A prominent clergyman of Mississippi recommends "Golden Medical Discovery" to suffering humanity everywhere. The "Discovery" builds up the strength and solid flesh when reduced below a healthy standard.

DYSPEPSIA AND GENERAL DEBILITY.

Rev. A. H. MEYER, of Trinity's Point, Cochamo Co., Mississippi, writes: "Having suffered for a number of years with dyspepsia, torpid liver and general debility, and having tried several physicians without benefit, I resolved, as a last resort, to consult your specialists at the World Dispensary. Being advised by them to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, I did so, and after using several bottles, I feel entirely restored to health. Now, in recommending your medicines to suffering humanity, I am glad to say, 'WELL, YOU?'"

A Sight on the Street.

A stranger is canvassing the city today soliciting orders to cleanse and make old hats as good as new, and is attracting considerable attention from the fact that he sports a head of hair that hangs well down upon his shoulders—much longer, in fact, than is worn by many women who boast of the beauty of their tresses.

Fined for Assault.

Thos. Burton, colored, was fined $1 and costs in Justice Fisher's court this morning for an assault made on Katie Mathews, a deaf and dumb colored girl. It is believed Burton intended to ravish his victim, but was prevented by her cries for assistance.

RAILROAD RUMBLE.

Parsons Wants the General Offices, of Course.

BUT WILL SHE GET THEM?

Items of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of "Democrat" Readers.

The proposition submitted by General Manager Purdy, of the M., K. & T. railroad, to our people, says the Parsons Sun, is regarded as a very modest and liberal one, and its speedy acceptance is almost assured.

A Sun reporter yesterday interviewed a large number of our citizens, many of whom were large property owners, while there were others who could only read their title clear to a home. All with whom he talked seemed to be enthusiastically in favor of accepting the proposition, and they sanctioned the acts of the committee to whom the proposition was formally submitted.

They feel that our people have lived too long on an uncertainty, that if we secure the general office building, the railroad interests here will not only be greatly augmented, but will be made permanent.

Just what steps will be taken in the matter have not been made public, but it is thought that a public meeting will be called, at which a plan for raising the amount asked for will be submitted by the committee.

A Palace Car Company.

The Williams Palace Car company is being organized at St. Joe, Mo., capitalized at $3,000,000. The cars will be built there. The berths will be a little longer than those in the Pullman and Wagner cars and about the same width. They will be arranged in about the same manner, with upper and lower tiers. The rack upon which the mattresses will rest will be made of aluminum inclosed in a case of wood and will fold up in the same manner that an accordion does, and will be deposited in the wall of the car in a space of 1/8 of an inch in thickness. Upon these frames will rest mattresses, made of cloth and rubber, which will be inflated with air immediately before being put in use.

In the summer, chilled air, and in the winter, warmed air will be used. These mattresses together with the bed-clothing will be stored underneath the seats when they are not in use. One of the greatest conveniences of the new car will be the ability to make up a bed in a seat half the regular size so that the seats upon the side of the berth may be occupied the same time the bed is. This will be a great convenience in cases of sickness and where invalids, who are unable to sit up, are accompanied by their friends or nurses.

Coach, Cab and Caboose.

The Missouri river has destroyed the Santa Fe right-of-way at East Atchison.

The decision of the Atchison reorganization committee to issue income bonds is variously commented on.

The Wells Fargo Express company has asked the Erie line to increase its speed between New York and Chicago.

Trouble is brewing in the Western Passenger association over side trips at cut rates by certain lines on Denver business.

Ex-Governor John Evans, of Colorado, has sued the Union Pacific receivers and bondholders trust companies to compel an accounting for over $100,000,000 in bonds.

It takes forty car loads of coal a day on the M., K. & T. system. The road has for some time past been getting all of its supplies from the mines east of Parsons, and it is claimed this coal furnishes twenty-five per cent more steam than any other.

The M., K. & T. has submitted an additional proposition to the people of Parsons, in which they agree to remove their yards out of the city for fifteen thousand dollars additional in cash. It is not likely that the proposition will be accepted.

It is stated that there is a deal on foot between the Gulf and the Katy for the purchase of the Parsons branch of the Gulf from Cherokee to Cherryvale. Not much credence is given to the report, but is evident that the Katy could operate this branch to better advantage than the Gulf.

Conductor Ben L. Walker, of the M., K. & T., writes from North Vernon, Ind., that the condition of his father is somewhat improved, but he is still quite ill.

A rate of one fare and a third has been made for the annual grand session of the United Sons of Protection, to be held at Pleasant Hill, Mo., July 30 to August 4.

The grand jury found true bills at Greenville, Texas, against Tom Henderson and C. A. Johnson, who were charged with a conspiracy to swindle the railway companies. They are charged with buying cheap stock and tying it on the railway tracks and getting a handsome sum from the company after the stock was killed. Both men are in the county jail.

BAPTIST WOMEN.

The Missionary Meeting at Warrensburg Concludes Its Labors.

At the Baptist Women's Missionary meeting at Warrensburg, yesterday, Mrs. Dixie Dean read a paper on "Children's Work." There are 263 local or auxiliary societies in the state. They collected for missionary purposes last year $4,727.89.

The following officers were elected for the incoming year: President, Mrs. W. T. Elliott; of Moberly; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. L. Burnham, of Kansas City; recording secretary, Mrs. V. D. Phillips, of Kansas City; treasurer, Mrs. G. W. White, of Kansas City. The next meeting is to be held at Moberly.

A Big Democratic Meeting.

The democracy of Saline, Lafayette, Johnson and Pettis counties will hold a big basket dinner and picnic at Sulphur Springs, near Sweet Springs, on Saturday, August, 4th, next. Gov. Stone and Ex-Governor Francis have been invited and other leading democrats will address the people. It is predicted, says the Sweet Springs Herald, that at least 10,000 people will be present, and the faithful will there be enthused.

The Fourth at McAllister.

The approaching 4th of July will be celebrated by an old-fashioned picnic at McAllister Springs.

WANTS ANOTHER "GO."

Choynski After Fitzsimmons—The Latter After Corbett.

Joe Choynski, with "Parson" Charles E. Davies, called at the Police Gazette office in New York yesterday. Choynski did not show the effects of the contest with the exception of a black eye. Davies says Choynski can defeat Fitzsimmons, and would have done so only he was not in condition, and has overtrained.

Choynski says he is not satisfied that Fitz can defeat him and will meet him again at catch weights to a finish in any club that will offer a reasonable purse. Choynski claims, also, that he overtrained, being too anxious to be in first-class condition, and that after the third round, when he had Fitz knocked out, he became suddenly weak.

It is not probable that Fitz will again agree to meet Choynski unless the latter secures backing for $5000 a side, and the Olympic club will agree to put up a purse of $10,000.

Fitzsimmons, looking none the worse for his tilt with Choynski, at Boston on Monday night, also arrived in New York yesterday. The middle-weight champion is now planning to get on a match with Corbett.

"I am not inclined to be boastful," said Fitz, "but I am confident that I can whip Corbett in a finish contest. Of my recent fight with Choynski I can only say that I went in to win. I admit that I was knocked down, but that does not win a fight. I am willing to meet Choynski again if the club hangs up a good-sized purse. I do not believe that Choynski was in bad shape on Monday night. He certainly would not have stood the punishment I gave him if he had been."

The Bishop's Good Work.

Bishop Albert Mack, the colored evangelist of Louisville, Ky., well known in Sedalia, is at present conducting services at Mexico, Mo., assisted by Rev. James Holmes. The meetings are being largely attended and will continue for a couple of weeks.

The Sedalia Excursion.

A special train over the M., K. & T. came in this morning, says yesterday's Clinton Democrat, bringing in 200 excursionists from Sedalia. The occasion was a picnic at Artesian park under the auspices of the ladies of the Episcopal church. The extreme heat kept many from coming. There was no rain at all in Sedalia last night, and the probabilities of a "scorch" kept some from coming who had purchased tickets.

COOPER'S CYCLONE.

It Struck Boonville Hard Late Yesterday Afternoon.

A cyclone swept over the country a mile west of Boonville about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, unroofing houses, blowing down trees and fences and causing great damage to crops.

In Boonville the storm was hardly less severe. The steamers Alda and Jos. Stephens were swept from their moorings. An ice house was blown down and window glass was broken all over the city by a heavy hail, which accompanied the wind. The rainfall in the city was over 4 inches, and the streets were flooded.

At Macon, the heaviest rain of the season fell at 4:30 p. m., accompanied by hail and a very hard wind. Corn and wheat were slightly damaged by hail and wind, and shade trees blown down.

AN OLD MAN SLUGGED.

Elisha Barrett, a Former Sedalian, the Victim.

From Wm. Inch, the narrow gauge baggageman, the DEMOCRAT learns of the robbing of Elisha Barrett, who kept the old Leroy house in this city years ago, at his home near Cole Camp, Wednesday night.

Mr. Barrett had gone to the pasture to look after his stock, about 9 o'clock p. m., when he was assaulted from behind by some unknown person and beaten most brutally.

The highwayman then went through the pockets of his victim and relieved him of two $10 bills and some silver, after which he escaped without leaving any clue as to his identity.

Fire Him Bodily.

If a chap comes along representing himself as an advance agent of a circus and offers $2 or more to allow him to put posters on your farm buildings, and afterwards asks you to sign a receipt for the $2, don't you do it, as that receipt will turn up as a note for $200, "in the hands of an innocent purchaser." At least that has been the experience of a good many people in other parts of the country.

Coxeyites on a Boat.

Conductor Sam M. Goddard, of the Lexington branch run, says his train passed fifty Coxeyites at Grady's coal mine this morning, the industrialists being on a boat and floating contentedly down the Missouri river.

The Catholic temperance ladies will give a literary and musical entertainment at their hall, Third and Montgomery, this evening. Ice cream will be served. All are invited.

OUR STORE

AIN'T A TEN-ACRE LOT!

No! no!! It is nothing more or less than the biggest thing in Sedalia or Central Missouri in the music line—and, well! yes!! we say it—we are selling more goods, getting in more cash, more goods sold on monthly payments, and much more all round solid business than all the other music houses in Sedalia combined or separate. Freight bills talk—drafts and remittances are mighty good evidence and we are not running any Ananias racket or Bluffing. We simply do the business, and we do it right on the square. Our expenses are simply awful, so the other fellows say. Well, they are awful. Awful small for the amount of our business—and the fun of it is our expenses are paid in cash. We have no time for funny business—life is too short, so we put in our time, our best licks, and all we weigh or measure in height, length, breadth or muchness, attending to business at

BITTEN BY A DOG.

A Madstone Applied to a Wound and Adheres Several Hours.

Yesterday, at Nevada, Mrs. M. Hedworth, a widow lady residing at Fort Scott, arrived with her 14-year-old son, Charles, to try the virtues of M. L. Miller's mad-stone. The lad was bitten by a hunting dog on the streets of Fort Scott Tuesday evening. The animal attacked him viciously, jumping at his throat several times, but young Hedworth fought him off, not, however, before the dog had inflicted a severe bite upon the lad's right arm just above the elbow. The stone was applied and adhered for several hours. The dog was killed.

SMITH'S ARMY STARVING.

About 150 Men Stranded on the Desert West of Grand Junction.

GRAND JUNCTION, Col., June 22.—A few industrials, members of Smith's army, straggled in here yesterday. They report about 150 of their comrades at the point of starvation and thirst scattered along the desert between here and Salt Lake. The Rio Grande Western will not carry them, and the trainmen have strict orders to keep them off. "General" Smith is here and is endeavoring, with poor success, to send aid to them. If something is not done many deaths may be expected.

The Body Taken to Tipton.

Burial services were conducted this forenoon at the Morgan Street Baptist church over the remains of Miss Loubella Shipley, colored. The International Order of Twelve attended in a body. The remains were taken to Tipton on the noon train for interment.

Shipped His Horses.

Frank Adams left last night for Council Bluffs, Iowa, taking with him Laura T. (2:09 3/4), Minnie Higgins and Norwood. The animals have been in training at the kite track and are in good condition.

Swallowed a Nickle's Worth.

John Kirk informed us yesterday morning, says the Odessa Moon, that he had a damage suit to defend either now, hereafter or some other time. He says he left a nickel's worth of ice at the home of a widow woman the other day. The ice was put in a bucket of water. Presently the widow took a drink of water and got choked on the ice. John says he can prove that the chunk of ice was as large as the ordinary nickel's worth, and notwithstanding the woman's very large mouth, she need not have swallowed the ice had she been more careful.

We have a nice cottage convenient to M., K. & T. shops which must be sold within ten days. A great bargain for some one. Terms easy. LANDMAN & HARTSHORN.

We are going to dispense with our compliments

This {Friday} Eve.,

—22nd—

From 8 to 10 o'clock at the Arlington -

- Fountain

Our most popular Phosphates:

Wild Cherry,
Orange,
Grape, Claret and Mint.

WE don't call this an opening, but its our treat, and we don't know of anything that would be more appreciated these hot evenings than our Sparkling, Invigorating Phosphates. We shall dispense these Phosphates only, for the reason that everybody likes them and the limited time prevents us from making all of our 128 drinks. Its our time to "set 'em up," we say, and we want our patrons and friends—"the more the merrier"—to come and drink with us. There will be no limit to how much or how often you drink in these two hours. We would say have anything the Arlington produces, but we can prepare Phosphates with greater rapidity than the other beverages, and we are going to try to wait on everybody; at any rate our Phosphates please all.

SOME BALD HEADS.

They are Found in the United States Senate.

SOME LUXURIANT CROPS.

A Majority of the Members, However, Are "Blessed" With Hairless Pates.

"What a charming array the senate would present in the first row at a grand ballet," a gallery occupant was heard by a Washington Post man to remark.

A large majority of the members of that body are bald heads. Mr. Gordon sports a small ridge of thin hair that extends over his bump of veneration. Senator Call brushes his hair over the top of his head to conceal his baldness. Coke has a fringe of white hair extending from ear to ear across the back of his head. Baldness peeps through the thin, iron-gray hair of Senator Turpie.

Blackburn is partially bald, but cultivates a Napoleonic tuft at the top of his forehead and retains a fairly respectable supply along the sides of his head, which is always cut short. Jarvis faintly conceals his polished cranium by a sprinkling of white hair. Harris is entirely bald, showing the bumps of firmness and self-esteem strongly developed. His scalp is ruddy, and a saber mark, which forms a deep indentation in the skull, is reminiscent of hair over his ears and circling round over his collar. Ransom is very bald, but what hair remains on the sides and back of his head is thick and iron-gray.

Senator Vilas has lost all his hair except a quantity of luxurious and glossy black locks that are suffered to grow long enough to be brushed over a white expanse of scalp. Gray has a small bald disk on the top of his head, and the crest of Mr. Palmer is quite bald.

Senator Vest's hair is becoming reminiscent of a departed luxuriance, and in Mr. Dolph's case his hair of late has run to whiskers. Mr. Davis has dark hair, which does not vegetate fast enough to conceal the growing inroads of baldness. No hair restorative can save Mr. Shoup from the consequences of early piety. Mr. Platt shows signs of losing his hair fast, and Mr. Aldrich retains a thin scattering of gray hair which shows signs of careful nursing and scrupulous brushing. Mr. Hawley is quite bald. Mr. Hill's pallor of face extends to his scalp, which long ago bade farewell to use of brush and cosmetics, and which, in relation to the seam of black gloss extending over his collar from temple to temple, is like the contrast of Poe's raven, on the pallid bust of Pallas.

Mr. Jones, of Nevada, has a long, pointed white beard, but little hair. Both Messrs. Squire and Mitchell retain a remnant of dark hair.

A striking contrast to the senators named is presented by Senators Sherman and Morrill, the two oldest members of the senate. Mr. Sherman has a well-preserved supply of white hair, and Mr. Morrill's white locks are still long and wavy.

SUNDAY CLOSING.

A Step in That Direction to be Taken at Warrensburg.

The members of the city council at Warrensburg have addressed the following communication to the mayor and marshal of the town:

We, the undersigned members of the city council, most respectfully call your attention to the fact—well known to all—that the laws of this city are being violated continually. Among some of the most notorious instances of their violation your attention is directed to the following:

Intoxicating liquors are being sold in open and notorious violation of the law by at least a part of the drug stores; at least one saloon has been keeping open on Sunday; gambling houses are permitted to run day and night; persons are often arrested, tried and convicted and committed and then turned loose without any attempt to collect fine or costs.

Therefore, we enter our earnest protest against such open and notorious violations of the law by drug stores and saloons, and the misconduct on the part of the officers who are duty-bound to see to it that the law is enforced. And to the end that the law may yet be enforced fairly and impartially, we pledge you our mutual support.

OLD-TIME SCORE.

Tipton and Versailles Play a Rocky Game of Ball.

The game of base ball between Tipton and Versailles, played at the fair grounds in this city on Tuesday, says the Tipton Times, was a Waterloo to Tipton.

Had both teams done their best work at the same time it would have been extremely interesting, but when it is stated that Tipton knocked out seventeen runs in the first inning and then got beat, it is not difficult to imagine the rest.

In palliation of this defeat, however, it must be understood that the boys have not played before this season, have done no practice work, and the club is but imperfectly organized.

The visiting club is in but little better condition, having played but one game this year. However, it serves to break the ice and we may expect to see some good playing done yet this year. The score is really no credit to either club and gives no indication of the excellent material to be found in both. It stood: Versailles, 51; Tipton, 42.

Crops in Moniteau County.

Harvest is in full blast and one of the best crops of wheat this section has raised for years is being saved in fine condition. The yield is generally quite large and the quality is unexcelled. Corn is very promising and as the crop is clean and in a vigorous condition, the only thing needed is rain for one of the largest yields that ever blessed a land. Pastures and meadows are beginning to need rain badly. Various sections of the state have been blessed with copious rains during the past week.—Tipton Times.

One of "Jimmie's" Victims.

Mrs. R. C. Walker, of Sedalia, is in the city visiting her sister, Mrs. Judge Taylor, and is accompanied by her son, Robert. Mrs. Walker was for many years a resident of this city, and her numerous friends will regret to learn that she was one of the victims of "Jimmie" Thompson, the absconding cashier of the First National bank of Sedalia.—Tipton Times.

SHARK POKER RULES

President Arthur's Pointers to the Novice.

THERE ARE ELEVEN OF 'EM

A Piece of Manuscript Found That May Prove of Some Value to Poker Players.

While rummaging some old papers left by a deceased relative a Baltimorean came across a set of rules for playing poker, which, according to the manuscript, had been compiled by the late President Arthur. The rules are as follows:

1. Don't buy half as many chips at the start as the other players.
The expectation is that you will win, and if you lose it is better that you borrow or "owe up."
2. Never ante up until someone tells you to and then say you have and stick to it, which will generally persuade someone else to "come in" twice. This rule, though an excellent one, must be followed with discretion. If practiced too often it is liable to produce unpleasant feelings.
3. Toward the end of the evening it is always better to "owe up" your ante "for a minute" than to "put up," as the winner of the pot frequently forgets to charge up the debt, and none of the other players will remind him, as they wish to do the same thing.
4. When the credit system begins to creep in, as it generally does, about the middle of the game, you should "owe up" if possible, and bet chiefly against those who always "put up." This is one of the most important rules. To win in cash and lose on credit is the great secret of successful poker playing.
5. In dealing always observe the bottom card, which you can easily do before the cut. Then by noticing how thick the cut is made you can tell whether the card goes out. It may help you in the draw.
6. Keep a sharp eye on the discards. They may be of service if your draw is not satisfactory.
7. When you are "in luck" watch your opportunity. From time to time put some of your checks in your pockets without being seen. This will enable you to "owe up" if luck turns, and will prevent the others from owing you.
8. When anyone wants to buy more checks and you have plenty, get them to buy of you if possible, in preference to the bank. It will enable you to conceal the amount of your winnings and, besides, the bank may not be able to pay up.
9. When you are "chipping out" for drinks, etc., put a cigar in your pocket every once in awhile. You are sure to be so much ahead of the game, and they come in handy, even when you don't smoke.
10. Never permit anything to make you forget for a moment that the whole object of the game is to save your own money and secure somebody else's, and let everything you do, however trifling, tend to this desirable end.
11. When the game is over if you are a winner deny it entirely, or fix the figures as low as possible; if you are a loser declare you have lost twice as much as you really have.

This rule is never departed from.
The money lost at a game of poker always foots up four times as much as the money won.

HELPING A CITY.

Street Improvements Does More Than Any Other One Thing.

Attention has been called recently to the rapid growth of Cleveland and Washington, says the Carthage Democrat, and the high price of real estate in those cities.

Washington draws thousands of home seekers who are attracted by the beautiful and well shaded streets, the parks and the churches and educational facilities of the city. No place of equal population has in the past twenty-five years expended so much money on these improvements. Naturally, real estate is in increasing demand, and prices rule high even in hard times.
A crash has frequently been predicted, but the years roll by and it has never come.

The same is true of Cleveland.
By public spirit and intelligence in beautifying its streets and maintaining fine educational institutions and churches, many millions of dollars are added every year to tax valuations, and the population is swelled by thousands. Each avenue is to be extended far out into the suburbs. It will be one hundred feet wide with car tracks in the center.
The tracks will be separated from the driveways on each side by broad grass plats planted with trees.
Then come the carriage roads, twenty feet wide, with hitching posts at convenient intervals. Between each carriage road and the sidewalk a bicycle path three feet wide will be provided.

The Cleveland and Washington plan is the solid way to boom a town. Thousands of rich and well-to-do people are on the lookout for such towns, and when they find them they go there to live and invest their capital.

When a city adopts these methods and also encourages the establishment of industries that will give employment to wage earners, it plants itself on a broad and ideal highway of progress. The Cleveland and Washington plan has been the one that has prevailed to make Carthage the Queen City of the Southwest. All that is needed now is the electric lines and rapid transit to the suburban towns.

The Sedalia Club's Wants.

It is said there are only two things the Sedalia base ball club wants—the earth and heaven, and as it didn't ask for the latter in its negotiations for a game here on the 4th of July, the intended pleasure of flaying the life out of the capital grabbers will be denied the Versailles aggregation of future world's champions. We've money enough to buy the Sedalians, but our boys will want a few firecrackers and cigarettes, and no cash goes to Pettis county this year.—Versailles

ing mothers and those reduced and

Just a suggestion: Why not try the Rocky Mountains? No better

CHINCH BUG INFECTION.

Under Ordinary Circumstances the Pests Can be Killed.

"B. R. Cauthorn," says the Mexico Intelligencer, "who was at Columbia last week attending the university exercises, says that in conversation with Prof. Porter, of the agricultural department, that gentleman informed him that he now had an ample supply of infected chinch bugs to meet all demands.
Prof. Porter is thoroughly convinced that the system of infection is practical. The cool weather prevented the process from working satisfactorily this spring, but he has no doubt that under ordinary conditions the bugs may be infected and the country rid of the pests. Shipments are being made every day.
All that parties need to do to secure the infected bugs is to send a can of healthy bugs to Prof. Porter with proper direction for their return."

is that Blair Bros. were born in Arkansas
